Look at the chart – try to quickly say the COLOR (not the word)

Ethics is often confused as an illusion … It is not, so let’s begin to explore in more detail
Greetings

Get to know all of those around you a bit.

3. What do you hope to learn by taking this class?
4. Any questions about the class/ syllabus?
• What Is Integrity?
  – Doing the right thing, regardless of the circumstances
    • Honesty, reliability, and fairness
    • Vital element of successful business relationships
    • Is as much about what to do as it is who to be

• Doing the Right Thing
  – Ethical issues—questions of right and wrong
  – Newspaper Test
  – Scenarios for you …
What IS the right thing?  Scenario

You are the co-owner of a company (5 partners) that is in need of a copy machine – estimated annual costs in the thousands. You want to get the best quality for the best price to stay competitive. You want to contract for a year of copier and support services, and you have opened it up to bid by multiple vendors. Your Manager (an employee of yours) is now evaluating 3 bids from 3 different vendors. All 3 vendors are relatively close in terms of quality of work, reputations and prices (but are not the same).

One of the vendors offers your manager a pair of season tickets to the Los Angeles Lakers basketball games if he contracts with them for the year (the other two vendors do not). The manager chooses that vendor, signs the contract for the year, and begins to take his girlfriend to the games.
Have you done any of these? Do you see others do these? Does it bother you?
Integrity and Entrepreneurship

• We can not control what happens to us
• We can control how we react

How do we react to little things? (3 min)

Things ever escalate for you?
It’s often just a matter of degree

Conflict creates opportunity

Social entrepreneurship
Entrepreneurial activity that provides innovative solutions for social issues.

A social entrepreneur
One who comes up with innovative solutions to society’s most pressing needs, problems, and opportunities and then makes them happen.
Integrity and the Internet

People act differently on web (also, while driving - quick example)

Why is this?

On-Line Ethical Issues

• Risks of buying and selling on the Internet
• Maintenance of personal privacy
  – “Cookies” to profile customers’ usage of the Web
  – Monitoring employees’ e-mail and Internet access.
• Protection of intellectual property rights
  – Misappropriation of brand, trademarks, patents or copyrights.
Write a group paper:
You own a small coffee shop -
1. Develop a “Code of Business Conduct” for your employees.
2. How would you communicate this to them?

Definition
Codes of conduct usually describe the:
- Required behaviors
- Responsibilities
- Actions or attitudes employees should have in an organization
- Ensures all individuals are on the same page and have a clear understanding of the business
- Provide guidance on how employees should act or react in various business situations
- May include disciplining employees who fail to follow company guidelines

<td>Cell phone and technology use while at work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disciplinary actions that may be taken</td>
<td>Privacy policy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Substance use</td>
<td>Equal opportunities</td>
